

Lions Give Impetus to Town Forward Movement; Will Aid in Publicity

Favorable And Enthusiastic Action Follows Address Of Henry M. Scharf And A General Discussion.

Endorsing and pledging its utmost support to any program that might be conceived for the promotion of the varied lines of business in Gettysburg and Adams county and a general booster campaign for the town and county, the Lions' club at its regular weekly meeting Monday evening at the Hotel Gettysburg gave further impetus to the general sentiment that has been gathering locally in favor of such activity.

The action of the Lions' club came after enthusiastic discussions of the personal experiences of individual members on recent travels where it was perfectly evident that Gettysburg was not only losing much tourist traffic because of the progressive advertising of other communities and sections, of incidents where potential visitors did not know of the battlefields or their location, and followed a talk by Henry M. Scharf, manager of the Hotel Gettysburg.

Speaking of the opportunities that were open to Gettysburg, Mr. Scharf stressed the importance to this community of the work of the Pennsylvania state publicity bureau, now sponsored by the Pennsylvania tourist hotels association, the Appalachian scenic highway and its coming motorcade to Quebec in September, the Capitol Tour, the Shenandoah Valley and many other factors at work publicizing this section of the country.

Gettysburg's Opportunities Speaking with authority by reason of the information gathered in the course of countless interviews and investigations during his recent trip by motor to Florida, at which time a close study was made of the activities and general promotion programs of several sections of the south as well as by reason of his position as a vice president and member of the executive committee of the newly formed Pennsylvania tourist hotels association, Mr. Scharf outlined the opportunities available to Gettysburg and classified them as "opportunities than which there have been none bigger since the reunion here in 1913."

According to the speaker no less than four distinctive programs are being undertaken in as many different sections in the vicinity from Pennsylvania to North Carolina "which can be made to work to the advantage of (Continued on Second Page)

TAXES FOR YEAR ARE DUE APRIL 25

Delinquents Will Not be Given Much Leeway After Time Limit Expires.

William Ogden, Gettysburg tax collector, today issued a warning to delinquents to settle in full their tax obligations before April 25.

Mr. Ogden was emphatic in his declaration that back taxes must be paid before next Monday, adding that after that date he will again call upon the borough officers to assist him in collecting the money due.

The collector estimated the number of delinquents at several hundred, including those of one, two or more years' standing. Persons owing head tax are more numerous, he said.

In announcing his decision to collect the taxes by law, Mr. Ogden pointed out that both the borough and school board treasuries are badly in need of money, and that both branches of the borough government have repeatedly approached him on the subject of closing up old duplicates.

Mr. Ogden is especially anxious to wind up the old duplicates by reason of the fact that the notices for the 1927 taxes will be placed in the mails May 1.

Full Text of Talk to Club

(Here is the full text of the address given by Henry M. Scharf, manager of Hotel Gettysburg and secretary of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce, Monday evening, to the Gettysburg Lions' club, following his return from a 3,500 mile motor trip through the southland, over the Appalachian Scenic Highway, during which he interviewed many leading people of the south and established contacts aimed to increase the tourist traffic to Gettysburg. Thousands of copies of a new and attractive booklet setting forth Gettysburg's natural advantages as a point of interest to tourists, published jointly by half a dozen hotel and other local interests who profit by increased tourist travel to the town, were distributed personally by Mr. Scharf at points along his route, where they will get into the hands of interested persons traveling northward by automobile. EDITOR'S NOTE.)

"It is my object in this short talk to tell of opportunities open to Gettysburg as a town—opportunities that ought to be made the most of which there have been none greater since the fiftieth anniversary here in 1913. Taking advantage of these opportunities will require some efforts and some money, but entails no new or untried activities. It is, rather, a matter of falling in line with a program such as has been pursued in neighboring towns and vicinities—a program tried and proven a success.

"Through fortunate circumstances and the timely, though limited, activities of certain local individuals, enterprises have been established, but the time is arrived when concentrated action on the part of this community is necessary.

Four Ways Offered

"In enumerating the factors that are active in publicizing this section of the country and attracting by their efforts thousands of additional tourists yearly for the purposes of discussion, we place them in the following order:

"1. The State Publicity Bureau; 2. The Appalachian Scenic Highway; 3. The Capitol Tour; 4. The Shenandoah Valley. These we mention as new factors now functioning, in addition to our former 'standbys' such as the Lincoln Highway, the battlefields, etc., which have lost none of their effectiveness or value to this community.

"Unquestionably, the gigantic program of road construction all over the country has made it a difficult task to steer traffic in any particular direction at the expense of additional mileage. There are now so many more feeder routes to everywhere, and this, with the incentive of good roads to long distance traveling, has enlarged the legitimate territory of various sections that it entails much keener and much broader and more highly developed programs of business promotion.

20 BABY BEEVES PLACED IN COUNTY BY FARM AGENT

Steers, Bought at Kansas City Market, Distributed To Boy And Girl Members.

Adams county's baby beef club was under way today, following distribution of the twenty steers among the eighteen members of the club.

With only twenty calves in the club, the boys and girls will have to extend themselves in order to bring home the prizes from the annual Pennsylvania state farm products show at Harrisburg next January, in view of the fact that other Central Pennsylvania counties are feeding more steers this year, and it is predicted there will be 400 head of cattle at the annual show.

The steers this year cost the youth-ful feeders $11.70 a hundred pounds. Harry Longenecker, of Lebanon, who bought the animals, paid $10 a hundred pounds for the stock in the Kansas City market. Although the price seems high in comparison with prices of other feeders, the imported western steers are of excellent quality and will round up with correspondingly higher prices at the farm show, Mr. Underwood predicted.

Expected To Reach 1,100 Pounds

The average weight of the calves was 500 pounds, and indications are that, with proper feeding and care, they should average 1,100 pounds next January.

In baby beef club work during the last two years, the members have netted a return of $25 per head above feed cost, Mr. Underwood said. Some of the members also won considerable prize money. Had the age limit been extended above 17 this year, the local club possibly would be twice as large, according to Mr. Underwood, but provision has been made for the older club members to feed six to twelve steers each, starting next fall.

The names of the members of this year's club follow:

Horace Frey, East Berlin; Lee Frey, East Berlin; Katherine Hostetter, Littlestown; 4 John Hostetter, Littlestown; 4; Esther Hostetter, Littlestown; 4; Nettie Gross, 2 calves, Hanover; 5; E. Brainerd Robert, Littlestown; 2; Harold D. Brown, 2 calves, Fairfield; John J. Small, McSherrytown; Donald W. Small, McSherrytown; Crowl Bucher, Cash-town; Elizabeth Murren, Hanover; 5; Stella Murren, Hanover; 5; Ralph Williams, York Springs; Grant Keagy, Hanover; 6; Floyd Carbaugh, Gettysburg; 4; John D. Rife, Orrtanna; 4; William H. Stambaugh, Abbottstown.

MOTOR CLUB TO SWELL ROSTER

Get Together Meeting of County Organization to be Held May 6.

Directors of the Gettysburg Motor club of Adams county met at Hotel Gettysburg Monday evening and outlined plans for a Get-Together meeting of the full membership of the club to be held in the Hotel Gettysburg auditorium Friday evening, May 6, at 8 o'clock when details of a membership drive will be announced and teams organized to band the automobile owners of the county into a 100 per cent organization for mutual benefit.

The present membership, numbering about 350, will be asked in postcard invitations to be sent out within the next few days to bring their friends who are automobile owners or drivers along to the Get-Together meeting in order to familiarize them with the work and aims of the organization, it is announced by John D. Keith, president.

There are to be no stellar speakers or lengthy speeches at the meeting, it is pointed out, but the idea is to encourage a general discussion of problems confronting automobile owners and outline a program of general activities during the coming summer and fall. All persons present will be given an opportunity to express their views concerning the work of the club, it is announced. Light refreshments will be served to all present with a committee comprising John W. Brehm, Henry M. Scharf and C. A. Bixler in charge of the arrangements.

JUROR CHOSEN IN SNYDER TRIAL

Crowd Which Thronged to Court House Yesterday Fails to Re-Appear Today.

(By Associated Press.) New York, April 19.—William E. Young, a hotel publicity man, was selected today as foreman of the jury which will hear the Snyder murder trial. Young is married but has no children and was the fifty-ninth talem to be examined.

None of his predecessors had proven acceptable.

Before being accepted Young said he had no scruples against capital punishment, that he believed men and women should be treated alike in criminal matters, that he would not take into consideration failure of a defendant to take the stand and that he would follow all instructions of the court.

Both Grey and Mrs. Snyder watched Young closely. When his acceptance was announced, Grey made no sign, but the woman smiled simply.

Discouraged by being barred from the opening session of the Snyder murder trial the crowd that thronged court house square all day yesterday failed to put in an appearance today.

Yesterday's outdoor spectators found little to look at and apparently decided to stay at home until the jury is selected and the courtroom is opened to the public.

A marriage license was issued Monday at the office of Luther C. Plank, clerk of the courts, to Joseph Robert Collier and Nellie Mary Bach, both of Accident, Maryland.

GUIDES TO TAKE TOURISTS ABOUT APPLE SECTION

Persons Acquainted With Orchard Section Will Direct Apple Blossom Tour.

Adams county's first apple blossom festival will be made a personally conducted tour of the fruit belt, under plans formulated at a joint meeting of committees from the Rotary and Lions' clubs at the Hoffman hotel, Monday evening.

Visitors to Adams county when the apple blossoms are "pretty pink and white" would be met in Centre Square here by competent guides who would direct the strangers through the apple belt, and incidentally point out other places of interest.

Members of the two service clubs who are familiar with the various orchards, their size, fruit and yield, boys from the Biglerville high school, members of the county horticultural society and employees of various orchards will be asked to serve as guides.

Guides Would Meet Cars

Guides would meet incoming tourists at a booth in Centre Square, appropriately and attractively decorated with apple blossoms, and offer to ride with them through the fruit belt or to direct them to a route which would give them some idea of the extent and beauty of the orchards in full bloom.

It is planned to have the guides in the square as early as 10 o'clock on the morning of the day set for the tour. Guides would eliminate the compilation of a booklet, describing the various orchards and other places of interest along a proposed route, the committee pointed out.

While Saturday, April 30, has been set as the tentative date for the tour, the belief was expressed by members of the committee that this may be too early, depending entirely upon the weather. Some members of the service club committees, who are extensive apple growers, said the blossoms may not be in full bloom until the first Saturday in May.

Will Invite Clubs

It was pointed out that Winchester's Apple Blossom Festival has been set for April 27 and 28, and that Adams county's fruit is generally a week to ten days later. Much depends on the weather between now and the last of this month, committeemen said. Present indications, however, are that the blossoms will be "in gorgeous array" (Continued on Second Page)

C. OF C. REVIVED ON LARGER SCALE

Directors Hold Enthusiastic Meeting and Plan to Outline Program of Activities.

The Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce is due to come into its own again and return to all its pristine effectiveness as the leading factor in the commercial progression of Gettysburg and Adams county.

A complete change of policy was discussed at a directors' meeting Monday evening in the offices of Mrs. Laura B. Fissel, in the Masonic building, at which time the resignation of H. Harold Miller, as president, tendered because of the press of his own business and that of a number of gas associations with which he is affiliated, was accepted.

Mr. Miller, however, will remain on the board of directors, and retain his general interest and activity.

For the next thirty days or so, the Chamber of Commerce will continue to function as heretofore with George W. Boehner, vice president, acting as president during which time a careful analysis will be made of the Gettysburg and Adams county situation and a program formulated, the details of which will almost unanimously meet with the public approval and will be of such a nature that the general support of all the business and civic interests of Gettysburg and the county will be forthcoming enthusiastically, it is said.

"It seems that at last certain foreign activities that are competitive in their nature, but yet are such that by aggressive cooperation they can be turned to work to the benefit of this community and county have come to light and are evident to the business men of Gettysburg," declared Mr. Boehner.

"The action of the chamber directors was brought about by the insistence of a number of business men and members that Gettysburg must have an effective commercial organization for the general promotion of all the interests of the town and county. If the determination of any number of individuals who have spoken to the various directors is any indication, Gettysburg is sure to have a Chamber of Commerce that will really function in an effective manner," Mr. Boehner continued.

The thirty-day respite will be devoted to planning and formulating tentative programs and in this the directors urge that the public give the matter serious thought and feel free to offer any suggestions publicly or otherwise that might occur to them.

Besides having the endorsement of a great many individuals in this process of reviving unified and energetic action for common good, the Lions' club has already endorsed such a program and pledged its support, and it is expected the Rotary club and other organizations will do likewise.

The next directors' meeting is scheduled for next Monday evening.

LOCAL SHOOTERS CARRY OFF PRIZES

Miller and Gentzler Tie For First In One Event and Mittinger Wins Handicap.

Gettysburg shooters carried away practically every honor at the Easter Monday shoot of the Hanover Gun club held over the traps of the latter club yesterday from a field of forty from this section and Maryland. In the sixteen yard events, George Miller and Bayard Gentzler of the Gettysburg club led the field with ninety-four breaks each, the tie being decided by a toss up. C. E. Moore of the York club finished second with 92 breaks, with Klunk of York and Krout of Maryland Line tied for third with 91.

The handicap event developed into a race between Edel, of Baltimore, and Mittinger, of Gettysburg, both of whom succeeded in smashing 24 from the 21 yard mark. Edel, shooting "for targets only", was eliminated from the money distribution, the purse going to the local shooter.

Among Gettysburg club members who participated were Miller, Collins, Gentzler, Mittinger, Cullison, Dillman and Martin, the last three being recent additions to the local organization who have been doing fine work this season.

Arrangements have been made for the local squad to attend the Susquehanna league shoot in Berwick tomorrow, no less than ten men having made plans to shoot under local colors. Three car loads will leave the Hoffman hotel tomorrow at 5:30. All shooters are welcome, as well as spectators, the club arranging for transportation for those who care to make the trip.

by April 30, barring cold weather which would delay them. Secretaries of the Rotary and Lions' clubs will be instructed to forward invitations to other clubs in Pennsylvania and Maryland, urging the members to come to Adams county to see the fruit blossoms. Attendance will also be invited by letters which members of the joint committee plan to send out and through the extension service of Pennsylvania State college. Governor Fisher, Doctor Jordan, secretary of the department of agriculture, and other state officials will be urged to tour the apple belt when the blossoms are on the trees.

The festival at Arendtsville Union Park on the evening of the day of the tour is problematical, depending largely on a subsequent meeting of the committee which comprises fruit growers and directors in the park to be held later this week.

It was the intention of the latter committee to serve meals at the park from noon until 4 o'clock when an entertainment would be given with talent from the local high schools and Arendtsville participating.

The service clubs' committees said they would include the park in a tour and tell visitors that meals could be secured there, but the opinion was expressed that persons from a distance could not be induced to remain at the park in the evening. Any festival that may be held, according to members of the committee, would resolve itself into entertainment for residents of the upper end of Adams county living in close proximity to the park.

TRANSIT COMPANY TO CARRY TEAM

The contract for transporting the Hanover baseball team during the season of 1927 has been let to the Adams transit company, operators of a number of bus lines in York and Adams counties. The bid of the Adams company was accepted by the transportation committee at a meeting held Friday evening. The contract provides for an eighteen-passenger bus of the type used by the transit company on their regular runs. The bus will be driven by the company's driver, and the members of the club will be covered by accident insurance while passengers in the bus.

Condition Of Hanover Pastor Satisfactory

The condition of the Rev. Dr. R. H. Bergstresser, pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran church, Hanover, who is suffering from a broken back in the Church Home and Infirmary hospital, Baltimore, while showing no improvement, remains satisfactory it was reported at that place today. The Baltimore surgeons are well pleased with his condition it is said.

college in 1926 and will graduate from the seminary this year. The bride graduated from the Hanover high school, class of 1923, and attended Shippensburg Normal school and Gettysburg college. She was a teacher in the West Manheim township schools.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony on a wedding trip to New York and the Adirondacks. The Rev. Mr. Yost has accepted a charge in Nevada, Iowa, where they will go in the near future.

Miss Bentzel-Garrett

Starling Bentzel, East Berlin, and Miss Thel V. Garrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Kessler, Nashville, were married Saturday evening at the home of Ray F. Zahner, York. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. O. P. Schellhamer, pastor of the Reformed church. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Sterling Garrett. Miss Elizabeth Zahner acted as maid of honor and Kerri Spangler, of Thomasville, was best man.

The bride wore a dress of white silk with tulle veil trimmed with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. Miss Zahner was dressed in blue georgette and carried lilies of the valley. The bride couple left on an auto trip. On their return they will reside along the Lincoln Highway, west of Thomasville.

Storm—Dell

Miss Edna R. Dell, of Hanover, and Anthony Storm, of New Oxford, were married by Justice of the Peace I. R. Witmer, Hanover, Saturday evening. The bridegroom is employed by the Bethlehem Mines corporation at Bittings.

LIONS GIVE

Gettysburg by the proper cooperation and establishing of the proper contacts and tie-ups. These are in addition to "our old stand-bys" such as the Lincoln Highway, the battlefields, etc."

General Discussion Follows

Dr. C. F. Sanders and J. Donald Swope, Esq., recounted personal experiences on recent trips where it was to be noted that, by road-sign advertising and the absence of Gettysburg literature and advertising, traffic was swinging around Gettysburg. An example was cited whereby the traffic in and out of the Shenandoah Valley failed to use the more historical and scenic route which would include Gettysburg for the reason that the proper pressure was not brought to bear on the part of this community to publicize this route and place it in the public eye. It was further stated that one of the competitive routes carried more traffic than the Gettysburg-Washington and Gettysburg-Baltimore route together.

The nature of the program that the Lions endorsed and pledged its support to is one that would promote not only tourist business, but also the interests of Adams county fruit and every other interest of the town and county.

While this section was the most important taken at the meeting the recommendations of the Music Week committee for the general observance of National Music Week in Gettysburg, during the first week in May, were submitted and with a few alterations were approved and sent on to the community National Music Week committee.

Next week the Lions' will join with the Rotarians in a joint meeting at the Hoffman Hotel at the regular hour.

operated as a department of the state Chamber of Commerce, in that manner making it a neutral and unprejudiced bureau and at the same time securing the aid—financially and morally—of many various lines of business throughout the state. It had its creation three years ago and was originally sponsored by the Pennsylvania state hotel association. Its activities in these three years have been constantly broadening, but this year marks the beginning of a new epoch. The newly organized Pennsylvania tourists' hotels association has taken over the sponsoring of this bureau and already nearly 200 hotels in this state have subscribed membership and pledged support. This, augmented by its regular channels of financial support, will enable the bureau this year to carry on a greater advertising program than ever before.

"This new program will be concentrated in newspapers and travel publications and is bound to create much new business in Pennsylvania, as well as prove the theory that Pennsylvania is not a route, but a destination. The program includes a campaign of courtesy to the visitor within the bounds of the state. Stickers will probably be provided for every foreign car bearing the wording 'Pennsylvania's Guest' and a number of other means used to draw more of the tourist business into the state of Pennsylvania and keep it here for a longer time. Numerous publications are issued by the bureau, giving in detail what the state has to offer its visitors.

"The Appalachian scenic highway includes Gettysburg on two of its three alternate routes from Winchester to Harrisburg. It is a wonderful international highway from the St. Lawrence to the Gulf of Mexico—85 per cent hard-surfaced and 100 per cent fit for all-weather travel. With its crossing feeder routes, it is virtually the backbone of transportation of eastern America and passes through the most historical and most beautiful sections of the east.

"It would delight me to tell you all about this wonderful highway at this time, but time prevents it. However, I call your attention to the series of articles—the first of which appeared in The Gettysburg Times tonight—by Paul H. Boyer, which will tell in detail of the significance of this highway. My only further suggestion is that this summer, when you are planning your vacation motor trip, travel south through the Shenandoah Valley to Staunton, Roanoke, Bristol, Va., and Bristol, Tenn., Johnson City, Tenn., and Asheville, N. C., and I promise you not only a wonderful road and wonderful country, but a marvelous atmosphere of progressive spirit that is absolutely contagious.

"Prominent Men in Motorcade. In connection with the A. S. H., there will arrive here sometime in May a scout car logging the route and a motor caravan comprising 75 to 100 state highway engineers, state and national senators and various highway officials of several states as well as many people prominent in public, business and civic life of the south, which will journey to the Province of Quebec in September for the annual meeting of the A. S. H. in Montreal.

"The publicity this caravan will receive is stupendous and as impossible to reckon as the good the communities and territory through which it passes will derive from having shared in this publicity. The Nomad magazine, a leader in the field of travel, as well as many other travel magazines, will contain columns of stories on the subject of this highway and this motorcade.

"The Associated Press wires have already been opened to handle all news resulting from this motorcade and during its progress. Adolph Ochs, publisher of the New York Times, is reported as an enthusiastic sponsor and will enter his own car in the motorcade. Major John S. Cohen, publisher of the Atlanta Journal, is actively and energetically sponsoring it. Correspondents from all the leading papers of the east will accompany the caravan. Every official in Quebec from the minister of roads down, every trade body, civic organization in the province have already pledged their support in entertaining this gathering.

"Growth Of Road Remarkable. 'I'll say right here with little fear of contradiction that the A. S. H. has shown a more stupendous growth in its short existence of only three years—considering the hundreds of miles of this route that had to be built and how it was built—both from a standpoint of construction and organization than any other highway route in the country.

"It is a product of unified effort and publicity and stands today as a permanent memorial to the progressiveness of the south, particularly to the genius and ability of Roscoe A. Marvel, proprietor of the famous Kenilworth Inn at Asheville, N. C., and Major John S. Cohen, publisher of the Atlanta Journal, the south's leading newspaper, and all their associates.

"The Capitol Tour, an organization of years' standing and which includes Gettysburg in its itinerary, under a new administration of A. T. Moore, of the Stonewall Jackson hotel at Staunton, Virginia, has extended its territory to include western North Carolina and now embraces a territory from the New York state line south to and including North Carolina and from the Appalachians east to the seat, all revolving about Washington as the center.

After the "Flu" is over --you need a Tonic

Help Is Needed to Restore Your Wasted Strength and Energy.

"Flu" leaves the body weakened and rundown. In such cases, a tonic is clearly indicated. Restore the appetite and rid yourself of that let-down feeling. "Flu" is a very enervating disease. It leaves its victims so weak and debilitated that there is as much danger from the after-effects as from the disease itself. In other words, after an attack of the "flu," you need a selective tonic to rebuild the system so that you may have your old-time strength and energy restored. S.S.S. is unequalled for restoring strength and vitality. You owe it to yourself and family to give S.S.S. a trial. It helps Nature build up red blood corpuscles. It improves the processes by which the body is nourished. It is time-tried and reliable. S.S.S. is made from the roots of fresh herbs and plants, and is prepared in a scientific way in a modern laboratory. S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.—adv.

TALK TO CLUB

Literary Digest have been selected as two of its advertising mediums in a new program of exploitation by publicity and advertising. In addition to this will be the distribution of a hundred thousand or so high class booklets, published by the Nomad magazine publishing company, which will be one of the finest booklets in circulation anywhere.

"The Shenandoah Valley and the Valley of Virginia have both created their separate corporations for the publicizing of the valley. The Shenandoah Valley with its wonderful rolling picturesque country, its wealth of historical significance, its natural wonders such as Endless Caverns and Natural Bridge has a broad program of publicity scheduled for the coming year. Roanoke, Virginia, now a wonderful city and a mere forty-three years ago only the size of Gettysburg, raised in three days recently an advertising fund of over $25,000.

Chance For Publicity

"In company with Herbert Grimm, editor of The Gettysburg Times, I drove the A. S. H. the entire distance from Gettysburg south to Florida and we had a countless number of interviews with various people and officials besides devoting much time to seeking information and studying the activities as outlined above.

"Gettysburg must occupy a prominent position in the activities of the state publicity bureau.

"The A. S. H. is available to Gettysburg and with its coming motorcade a big opportunity is offered for publicity and prestige that is unparalleled in the history of this community since the reunion. Efforts are being made to make Gettysburg an overnight stop.

"The Capitol Tour will yield big dividends and the Shenandoah Valley activities offer a wonderful opportunity to make a tie-up that will be invaluable.

"Often the statement is made that we have the world's best marked battlefield and the nation's greatest shrine. We have and it can't be taken away from us. However, the centering of public attention on the vicinity around us and far away from us is unquestionably competitive and will be more and more inclined each year to minimize Gettysburg's popularity with the public if something isn't done to keep Gettysburg in the public eye.

"We have so many natural advantages and can therefore put over any program at a cost much less than other localities.

"We must capitalize on the publicity of these other sections by showing Gettysburg to be on the best routes to or from.

"But bear this in mind. With all the advantages the valley, the state, the A. S. H., the Capitol Tour have—they lack a big historical shrine such as Gettysburg is. And therefore one of our accomplishments—in fact our big accomplishment—on our recent trip was establishing the fact that our cooperation is wanted and an invitation to join in with their program is available to us.

WHY LOOK OLD BEFORE YOUR TIME?

So many tired, run-down men and women looking older than their years, needlessly endure bodily misery and discomfort by day and sleep-disturbing bladder weakness by night, when just two Foley Pills diuretic (corrective and regulative) taken at intervals as directed, would give them bodily comfort and a grateful ease from pain. Beales, Prop.—adv.

"It's a matter of mutual benefit, therefore. We can't expect anyone to do our job for us. We must do that ourselves.

"There is no reason why Winchester can sponsor a campaign such as she does for her fruit growers and we can't. If anyone is of the opinion that the Shenandoah apple blossom festival is not a big affair and doesn't really advertise the valley fruit or doesn't attract attention all over the east—let him journey to Winchester and see.

"The growers of this county are to be commended on their efforts to sponsor some such festival this year. Gettysburg should be the scene of such a pageant and should include Adams county apples with her own many points worthy of exploitation on a consistent publicity and advertising program.

"There is little additional that can be said without going into lengthy detail. However, tonight your Chamber of Commerce directors will meet to decide on its future. Without discussion the organization, or defending it or apologizing for it—some such organization is needed here. Whatever the future holds for it or any organization of similar nature succeeding it—I ask of you for it your whole-hearted support and cooperation to the end of making good on the opportunities now before us and making good our boast that Gettysburg IS the 'biggest little city in the world.'"

You can have your private yacht

GIVE me a pipe and Prince Albert, and you can have your cabin-cruiser and your winter vacation. I won't envy you for a minute. In fact, I wouldn't trade places with anybody. I could even be happy on a desert island with a pipe and plenty of P.A.

You'll understand my enthusiasm for this prince of smokes the minute you open the tidy red tin and get a whiff of real tobacco. But that's only a starter. The taste more than lives up to the promise of the aroma. Tuck a load in your jimmy-pipe, light up, and see.

Cool, as a breeze from the forward deck is cool. Sweet, with a sweetness that doesn't tire. Mild as milk, yet with plenty of body to let you know you're smoking. P. A. is neither too heavy nor too light, which makes it the middle-weight champ, so far as I'm concerned.

Telling you about Prince Albert is one thing. Trying it in your pipe is another. You'll never know exactly what it is that holds millions of happy jimmy-pipers to this one brand until you make the personal test. When you do, you'll say I did you a favor in tipping you off.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin hummers, and pound crystal glass humidifiers with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and punch recommended by the Prince Albert process.

Out of the Past

Happenings of Days Gone by as Chronicled in The Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times, the Files Reveal.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Local Items.—About fifty persons left York county last week for the west.

W. H. Bayly, Esq., has opened a law office in north-east corner of the diamond.

George Arnold has removed his clothing store into the building long known as the "Sentinel" office.

The new council of New Oxford borough organized by appointing Joseph S. Gitt, president; C. H. Nagle, clerk; Aaron Sheely, treasurer; Francis Sherman, policeman.

The April court and pleasant weather brought an unusual number of persons to town. On Monday there were more drunken men on the streets than we have seen for some time.

We hear complaints of drunken rowdies being permitted to roam the streets unmolested at night and even at early hours of the evening. The police should see that it is broken up and that at once.

Frank Mickle has taken charge of the "Keystone hotel" on Chambersburg street, recently purchased by him. He has refitted it throughout and will aim to make his guests comfortable in all respects.

At the recent meeting of the Carlisle Presbytery, Rev. David Walls, of this place, was elected one of the delegates to the Presbyterian General Assembly, which will meet in Chicago on the 17th of May.

Among the delegates to the General Synod of the Lutheran church, which meets at Carthage, Illinois, the last of May, are Rev. Drs. Brown, Hay and Stack, Prof. Biele and J. George Wolf, all of this place.

Rev. Mr. Van Cleve was elected Moderator of the Presbytery of Carlisle, which met in Mechanicsburg last week. Gettysburg was selected as the place of the next stated meeting of the Presbytery.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

CHANGE

MERE routine will dry up the oil in the most active human frame. Compelling personalities are those that thrive on interests. One reason why so many wives are unhappy in their home life is because they have so few interests.

In the next decade there are going to be more happy marriages than ever before because of the liberal viewpoint being placed upon women's activities. Men are beginning to see what they gain by welcoming the larger sphere given to women. Why shouldn't women be as busy as men, with as many interests that they may call their own?

Next to that of being called a mother, there is nothing more fine or noble than to be called "a working woman."

If your days are long and dull, something is the matter with you—not the days.

Fate is only against the one who will not work, who will not think, who will not attempt something that has never been done before.

I have made a careful study of those who are well known, who have accomplished much, and I find that they are folk whose lives teem with interests, with change from this to that.

Keep interesting yourself in a large number of things, and you will be amazed at the ease with which you accomplish the big things about which your life centres.

Even though you do one thing well, if you do not vary your work, you will grow dull, even at the one thing. Or, at least, you will grow uninteresting to anybody outside yourself. And who wants to live in a self-made cage?

Sprinkle your life with changes. Work, play, laugh. Be foolish every once in a while. Even get used to being laughed at. What does it matter? It's a whole of a world!

Current News and Notes.—Ross Winans, who died in Baltimore a few days ago, was the man who introduced the American railway system in Russia, and thereby made an immense fortune. He was 84 years of age.

The tobacco crop of Lancaster county is estimated to be worth $3,000,000. An electric belt for ladies, which is said to have a tranquilizing effect upon the nerves, is the latest invention. For steady comfort, however, it is not likely to supersede the old and popular belt, which is composed of a coat sleeve with a young man's arm inside of it.

Ex-President Grant and Mrs. Grant are going to Europe next month for an indefinite period of travel. He will be the most notable American who has visited Europe during the present century, and his military reputation would be sufficient to gain unusual personal attention for him apart from his eight years term in the presidential office. Martin Van Buren and Franklin Pierce are the only ex-presidents who have visited Europe, but they were little known abroad, and they occupied the presidential office for one term only. They both did a good deal of mischief while in office, but not sufficient to gain a foreign notoriety. General Grant will take his departure from Philadelphia on the 17th of May.

Sales.—Col. E. G. Fahnestock has sold to Lewis Strouse the dwelling house on Chambersburg street, with lively stable and stock for $5,300.

Joseph I. Livers has sold his house and 1½ acres of ground in Bonneauville to John F. Kuhn at $1,400 cash, and is building another house at the junction of the Gettysburg and Hunterstown roads.

Some months ago, William Pierce, of this place, broke his leg while assisting in the removal of a piano at the depot. He had measurably recovered, still requiring the use of crutches. On Saturday evening he was unfortunate enough to break the leg again, by falling out of the door at his residence on Breckenridge street.

Re-Organized.—The Oak Ridge W. S. S. reorganized on the 8th inst., by electing Eli Goehener, president; Dr. J. H. Marsden and L. W. Heikes, superintendents; Maggie Heikes, secretary; Rachel Gachenouer and Joseph E. Wierman, librarians; H. H. Wierman, treasurer. We all anticipate having a pleasant school this summer, as well as a profitable one. The officers elected are well qualified to fill the positions they hold and we think will use every effort to make the school a success.

New Oxford.—Mr. and Mrs. Clement Lingg and children spent Sunday in Shannokin.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Sterner spent Sunday in Mt. Carmel.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bupp, Gettysburg, spent Sunday here with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Fesser, York, spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Breighner, Pleasant street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Weaver, Philadelphia, spent the week-end here with Mr. Weaver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Weaver, Hanover street.

Frank Blair, Columbus Ohio, is spending some time here with his sister, Miss Sallie Blair.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rabine spent Sunday in York with Mr. Rabine's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flesham, Waynesboro, spent the week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. John Flesham.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Storm, Midway, spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. Leo Robinson, Pleasant street.

Banns of marriage were announced Sunday for the first time in St. Mary's church by Rev. Joseph Wahlen between Miss Ethel Flesham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Flesham, near town, and Albert Smith, of Philadelphia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Smith, New Oxford. The wedding will take place in the near future.

A GOLF TRICK

Remember when at golf you play
The rules were made to be obeyed,
And when the other chap's away
Refuse to shoot till he has played.

All even on the eighteenth green
I stood with old man Sharp, and he,
As it was very plainly seen,
Was due to putt ahead of me.

"I find I have to tie my shoe,
You putt, 'twill save us time," he Said.
That seemed a thoughtful thing to do,
And so I smiled and went ahead.

The cup was in a tricky place,
I tapped my ball and watched it
roll
And saw a grin light up his face
As it went skidding by the hole.

For ways peculiar and dark
A golfer beats the bland Chinese,
He knew I'd overshoot the mark
And that two putts would vanquish me.

The moral's just as plain as day,
Don't fall for any wily ruse,
Make him shoot first who is away
And wait until he ties his shoes.

Washington Hecks, while taking a drink of water at the post office this morning, praised it as a beverage almost as if he had the agency for it.

Isaac Helwanger has been around here so long and knows everything about everybody so well, he can tell anybody all about themselves except the youngsters.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE

When it was feared he could not recover from a streptococci infection of the larynx, Philip Perkins, 4-year-old son of Dr. J. A. Perkins, Coatesville, underwent an operation and lived for twenty-one days by breathing through an aluminum tube inserted in the trachea below the Adam's apple. The operation was a success. The tube has been removed and the victim is again normal.

PAY TAXES TWICE

Eighty-eight residents of Chester county paid their 1926 taxes twice. In many cases different members of the same family attended to the payment. So checks totalling $551.61 have been returned by county officials.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use for only 75 cents. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant. Little Jack Rabbit

By David Cory

Dear me, while Little Jack Rabbit was enjoying the circus, as I mentioned in the last story, one of the Three Merry Grasshoppers in climbing out of the woodbox behind the kitchen stove in Lady Love's neat little kitchen sprained his pinky toe. He was so anxious to see if the Sunny Meadow was warm enough for him to be out, that he lost his footing.

At once the bunny boy's pretty rabbit mother called up Dr. Quack, the famous duck doctor. But, dearest me! He was at Henny Jenny's house. One of her children, the youngest, I think, had the chicken-pox. Of course there was only one thing for Lady Love to do, and that was to call up the Medicine Dog, who at once trotted over with his famous pink pill box.

"I think you have the mumps," solemnly said this wise old Medicine Dog, pouring out a teaspoonful of Lollypop Sweetstoria for the littlest grasshopper.

Goodness me! Lollypop Sweetstoria must be a wonderful medicine, for in less than three minutes after the old dog had left, the Littlest Grasshopper felt so much better that he hopped out of bed and back into the woodbox, and picking up his fiddle, began to play:

"Over the hills and far away,
Where the Merry Little Breezes play,
Is a sunshiny field where all in a row
The beautiful Candy Carrots grow."

NATURAL TOBACCO TASTE

—that's reason enough!

To be tasted food must not be smothered by sauces. And if this were true of nothing else on earth, it's true for tobacco. Nothing can improve on natural tobacco taste.

Q. How does the car owner benefit by the United States Rubber Company's operation of its own Cotton Mills?

A. Cotton Cord is the backbone of every tire. So no tire can be better than the cord used in it—and the quality of United States Tires benefits greatly by these cord mills.

They were established ten years ago solely for the purpose of producing an adequate supply of uniformly high grade tire cord, made strictly according to the specifications laid down for United States Tires.

The establishment and operation of these mills, like every other United States Rubber Company development, leads directly to longer tire life and greater value for the car owner's dollar.
